CHILDREN GO FREE

There is a magic to Haddon and children see it as a fairy tale castle. We love this and want to encourage it. So children enter free, and we hope they leave charged by the past.

ACCESSIBILITY

Due to the age and nature of Haddon Hall, there are many uneven floors and steps within the site. Access for visitors with disabilities, particularly wheelchair users, is very restricted. We suggest that visitors with special requirements contact the Estate Office prior to their visit for further information. Unfortunately, we cannot allow large bags, prams, pushchairs or mobility scooters into the house. We offer a variety of alternative baby carrying equipment, and safe bag storage at the entrance.

Visit 2019

Visit Haddon, step back in time and experience the unexpected. Left untouched for centuries: rich tapestries remain glorious on panelled walls; ancient furniture shows the marks of past lives; exquisite Venetian glass, frescoes and carvings adorn and tell the story of this extraordinary nine hundred year old home.

With the return of the family, Haddon is now full of life. The Elizabethan walled gardens, once lost to rambling ivy and towering yews have now been redefined by award winning designer, Arne Maynard.

Music is heard within the chambers and halls, archery is taught in the Chapel Fields and our busy events calendar provides something for everyone.

Come, visit, be surprised and enjoy a quintessential English day in Derbyshire, that will leave you and your family with wonderful memories.

EXHIBITION – THE 9TH DUKE'S

Our intriguing new permanent exhibition explores the restoration of Haddon by the 9th Duke of Rutland in the 1930s, as shown in the photograph above, after two hundred years in which the Hall had been unlived in by the family.

Opening Night Thursday 25th April 6.00pm

Join Lord Edward and Margie Burnet for an evening talk to celebrate the opening of 'The 9th Duke's Exhibition'. Booking essential. Tickets £38.00 – please refer to www.haddonhall.co.uk.
